Finance, dated 22.5.98.
3. Government Lr.72692/PC-II/89-1,
Finance, dated 28.9.98.

-----
Certain doubts have been raised as to how interest for the belated payment of gratuity amount authorised by Accountant General has to be calculated in the light of the clarification issued in the reference second cited and also regarding the procedure to be followed to disburse the balance gratuity in the case of retired Government servants who dies in the intervening period upto March, 2003.

2. I am directed to clarify that 60% of the difference in gratuity / leave salary to be paid after five years (i.e. 2003-2004, consequent on the revised scales of pay shall be allowed interest at the rate applicable to the G.P.F. account of the surviving employees. As such the pension sanctioning authorities are authorised to disburse the said amount along with interest after five years, i.e., in the year 2003-2004. However, in the case of employees who happen to expire in the intervening period prior to 1.4.2003, the entire amount of arrears inclusive difference in gratuity, leave salary, etc., along with interest upto that date may be drawn and paid in cash to the spouse/legal heirs as the case may be.

Yours faithfully,
